

STAR FOOTBALL PLAYER IS HELD IN MOUNT CASE

Charles Palmer Held Incommunicado Thursday

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, May 17.—Charles "Chuck" Palmer, star football player and senior student at Northwestern University was held in custody tonight in connection with the disappearance of Leighton Mount, freshman student, in September 1921, despite denials by Palmer that he knew anything about the case.

Palmer was taken into custody after Mrs. Violet Bachman, a former friend of his, had told assistant state's attorneys that Palmer told her shortly after Mount's disappearance that Mount was safe and that he knew where he was, and that he later told her that he could not talk about the case.

Palmer, who had been held incommunicado at the order of the state's attorney's office was confronted by Mrs. Bachman today in the presence of assistant state's attorneys when she repeated alleged conversations she had with him.

He flatly denied her statements although he admitted that he knew Mrs. Bachman, then Miss Violet Lawson, in 1921.

Also present at the questioning of Palmer and Mrs. Bachman was Roscoe Conkling Fitch, student, who a few days ago claimed to know all about the Mount case and said later that those inquiries were talking about Louis Aubere, a student killed in an automobile accident a few weeks ago.

Palmer tonight was taken to a cell in a police station where assistant state's attorneys said he would be kept as long as it is believed he can furnish information not yet divulged. Fitch, on the other hand, is being housed in a hotel and tonight was taken to the state's attorney's office in the belief that he would be able to help in developing new leads.

Mrs. Bachman was said to have divulged the information she claims she possesses through her husband, R. G. Bachman, a salesman, to whom she told it and who notified the state's attorney.

Palmer told John Sharrar, assistant state's attorney, that he had been with the then Miss Lawson on only two occasions, once on September 15, previous to the time Mount disappeared and once early in October. He said he did not discuss the Mount case with her because he knew nothing about it.

Knew Nothing of Case.

Palmer admitted, according to investigation that he had participated in the chase rush the night Mount vanished but insisted that because he was in football training he went to his room about 1 o'clock in the morning. He said that he had roomed with J. Allen Mills of Akron, Ohio, a former student who was brought here for questioning and expressed the opinion that the fact that he roomed with Mills caused his name to be involved in the case.

Intimating that further information was expected from Palmer, Charles Wharton, assistant state's attorney tonight said:

"This is the first real evidence we have been able to dig up in this case. We had to fight for that. We sent policemen to the fraternity house where Palmer stays, twice without result. We finally found Palmer at 1 o'clock this morning and took him out of bed."

Palmer complained to newspaper reporters regarding his treatment at the hands of authorities. He said he had been taken from the fraternity house, put in a police cell and held incommunicado throughout the day, not being allowed to get in touch with anyone to tell them of his predicament.

Mr. Bradfute said that the bureau would very shortly establish a bureau in Chicago to supervise this work.

GOVERNOR SMALL DEFENDS OFFICERS IN HERRIN RIOTS

Believes Neither Black Nor Hunter Were to Blame

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 17.—Neither Adjutant General Black nor his personnel officer, Colonel Sam Hunter, is to blame for the failure of national guard troops to be sent to Williamson county during the mine riots of last June, in the opinion of Governor Len Small. He absolved the adjutant general's office of all blame for this unfortunate affair, while a witness this afternoon before the committee investigating the rioting.

Governor Small was questioned for 45 minutes as a voluntary witness. Chairman McCarthy stated when he appeared that he came at his own request and not in answer to any summons from the committee.

Proceeding the chief executive was his secretary George D. Sutton, who detailed his own activities at the time when trouble in Williamson county appeared imminent and during the absence of Governor Small, who was on trial at Waukegan.

There was one outstanding discrepancy between governor's testimony today and Adjutant General Black's statements before the committee several weeks ago. The governor said he received no report of advice concerning the Herrin situation from the general until the afternoon of Wednesday June 21. General Black had said he forwarded to the chief executive all reports made to him by Colonel Hunter, his representative at Marion and Herrin before and during the rioting. He testified Colonel Hunter had advised him Tuesday and Wednesday of the situation but his version of these reports differed from that of the Colonel who also testified.

Was Out of City

Governor Small said he was away from the city from April 21 until July 4th and that the first reports of impending trouble in Williamson county which came to him were Associated Press dispatches. He acknowledged receipt of a letter from Mr. Sutton "either Tuesday or Wednesday morning" as the first official report made to him of the incipient rioting.

"The next word I recall was that I received a call Wednesday afternoon from W. J. Lester, governor of the mine that later was attacked" who I think was at the Great Northern Hotel, Chicago. He seemed very much excited and told of his men at the mine being threatened. He asked for troops. I asked him if he had seen the sheriff and he said he had.

"Then I put in a call for General Black, and he told me Colonel Hunter was on the ground and that he (Black) had ordered three companies of the national guard held ready for action."

After supper that Wednesday night, the Governor continued, he again talked with Black who was "very much relieved" and said Colonel Hunter had arranged a truce whereby the non-union mine workers were to leave the county the next morning by train.

The next morning he received the Associated Press dispatch telling of the killing of non-union men.

"I was very anxious to get the facts of the situation," remarked Governor Small. "I depended on the Adjutant General, however, to look after the situation, as my mind was occupied with affairs at Waukegan."

COMPLETE JURY FOR MURDER CASE

IOWA CITY, Iowa, May 17.—Unexpected passing of a peremptory challenge today resulted in the completion of the jury to hear the case of Robert Leeper, on trial for first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Roy Wertz, his father-in-law. First witnesses will be heard when court opens tomorrow morning.

The jury is composed of eleven farmers and a garage man. Leeper's wife and Mrs. Roy Wertz also are under indictment for first degree murder in connection with the slaying last December. Leeper is the first to go on trial.

DR. C. F. WISHART IS CHOSEN MODERATOR BY PRESBYTERIANS

Defeats W. J. Bryan and Two Other Candidates for Office

(By The Associated Press)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., May 17.—Dr. Charles F. Wishart, president of Wooster College, Wooster, Ohio, today was elected moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, defeating William Jennings Bryan on the third ballot.

The Commoner had led a field of four on the first ballot and of three on the second, when he came within eighteen votes of election, but after all three candidates had withdrawn, Dr. Wishart forged ahead, winning by 451 to 427, with 439 votes needed to elect.

Friends of Dr. Wishart based their campaign on the claim that an ordained minister was needed to direct the highly specialized work of the church and on Mr. Bryan's views on the theory of evolution, holding that his position as a leader of the fundamentalists would not be conducive to harmony.

The three times defeated nominee for president declined to discuss his defeat. He said he had left the hall when nominations started and sunned himself on a balcony during the two hour fight.

Election of the moderator was the high spot of the opening session of the 135th assembly of the church. Dr. Calvin C. Hays, the retiring moderator, opened the week's convention this morning with his annual sermon before the nearly 900 delegates had partaken of communion.

Following the election of Dr. Wishart standing and special committees and the assembly adjourned until tomorrow.

The four candidates nominated for moderator included two California divines, the Rev. Hugh K. Walker, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, the Rev. Frank M. Slesky of Oakland, California, Dr. Wishart and Mr. Bryan.

LOTS OF ACTION IN HOUSE OF DAVID PROBE

(By The Associated Press)

ST. JOSEPH, Mich., May 17.—The disappearance of a witness desired by the state, the sending of a colony husband to jail for failure to answer questions propounded to him by Judge Harry Dingliem, and the searching questioning of the colony nurse and physician were a part of today's activities attendant to the one-man jury investigation of the House of David here.

The witness who disappeared was Etidorpha Smith. Temporarily with Sheriff Bridgman when Dr. G. H. Lamsey, to examine the girl, who the colony physician said was not in condition to appear, the colony members later informed the sheriff that she was not in the colony. This led to an immediate summoning of Francis Thorpe, cult official, Dr. L. B. Estes, colony physician and Florence McCaslen, nurse and Julius Moore, who married Etidorpha Smith in 1921.

Mr. Moore was on the stand only a short time then Sheriff Bridgman was called to take him to the Berrien county courthouse for having refused to answer questions put to him.

Bandits Are Ready To Negotiate Terms

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 17.—A Peking dispatch to the state department today said that Consul John K. Davis and Major Philoan, assistant military attaché at Lincheng, had reported that the bandits had stated they were ready to negotiate with Chinese authorities for the release of the Americans and other foreigners recently captured. The message said that a representative of the Chinese government would leave on the morning of May 17 to begin the negotiations.

The message, which was from Minister Schurman said the terms of the brigands for release of the prisoners apparently had not been formulated as yet but were understood to include the raising of the siege of Paotzu and the restoration of all the bandits to the Chinese army. Apparently no ransom, it was stated, had been demanded.

The dispatch said the Chinese minister of communications admitted that he did not know exactly the terms the bandits proposed but that he "blames the magnitude of them on foreign interference."

Minister Schurman pointed out that the Chinese government would "undoubtedly do everything possible to shift the blame on the foreigners for everything that goes wrong" and added that for this reason the Peking diplomatic corps had consistently refused to participate in negotiations with the bandits or otherwise afford the Chinese government "an excuse to shirk or shift their own obvious responsibility."

The statement was issued by the department shortly after it had made public the text of a note delivered by the diplomatic corps at Peking to the Chinese foreign office. The note reiterated that the Chinese was under obligations to obtain the release of the captives, and added that the diplomatic corps was waiting impatiently for it to take "efficacious measures" for disposition of the prisoners.

PRESIDENT KINLEY MAKES REPLY TO ALLEN STATEMENT

Says it is So Absurd That Denial is Not Necessary

(By The Associated Press)

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., May 17.—The following statement was made today by David Kinley, president of the University of Illinois regarding an attack by Mrs. E. T. Allen, the daughter of former university regent Milton Gregory, on university officials in a letter to the board of trustees.

"The statements of Mrs. Allen are so absurd on the face of them that it seems to me foolish to take time even to deny them."

"Any statement that Dean Clark or any other officer at the university maintains a spy system is untrue. The statement is the kind of campus gossip which arises when offenders against discipline find themselves caught, and wonder how it happened."

"Any statement that I, as president of the university, have based official action on results of any supposed spy system is the product of a diseased imagination. If Mrs. Allen or her husband has any specific charges to make against any officer of the university, they can be sent to the board of trustees, and the officers of the university will meet them. I, myself, will be glad to transmit any informal charges. In the meantime I can only say that the statements thus far made, so far as they can be dignified by the name of specific statements or charges, are untrue. A truer view of Dean Clark and his work may be had from a report on the university of Illinois just published by Charles Foster Kent, of Yale University, based on a recent survey. He says: 'Its deans must also be reckoned among its potent religious forces. Dean Clark stands forth preeminent among deans of students in our American universities. Kent, keenly sympathetic and gifted with a charming sense of humor, not only knows the modern university student but also knows how to win his confidence. His consultation hours are crowded with under-graduates who have come to seek counsel on every subject from getting a job to getting a wife. No pastor ever had a more important parish or served it better.'"

AMERICAN CONSUL LEAVES VLADIVOSTOK

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17.—The state department was advised today that American Consul Tuck at Vladivostok and other members of the consular staff, left that city yesterday for Tokyo, thus completing the withdrawal of American consular representatives from the territories of soviet Russia.

A statement issued by the state department revealed one of the difficulties in dealing with soviet officials. It said:

"The department of state has received information that quantities of foreign merchandise, including American property, have been seized at Vladivostok by the soviet authorities, and either disposed of locally, or dispatched to western Russia. It has become evident that the conduct of the soviet authorities make it impossible to maintain the consulate at Vladivostok, and hence it has been closed on May 16."

TWO KILLED IN ECUADOR EARTHQUAKE

GUAYACUL, Ecuador, May 17.—Two men were killed and many injured and much damage to property has been done by a strong earthquake in Quito and that vicinity according to dispatches received from the capital.

Numerous buildings including the government palace, the city hall, the cathedral, the archbishop's residence, the astronomical observatory, the military academy, the railway station, and hundreds of residences have been damaged.

The military academy has been abandoned owing to the dangerous condition in which the shock left it.

FORMER I. W. C. STUDENT DIES AT EDWARDSVILLE

Miss Mary Darlie Little died recently at her home in Edwardsville. Two years ago she was a student at Illinois Woman's college. She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Little, two sisters and a brother. She had been ill for several months. She was only twenty years of age at the time of her death.

MISS ROSE MAGNER, assistant secretary of the Jacksonville Farm Supply Co. left last night for a week end visit with her cousin, James D. Flynn and family at Champaign. While there she will attend the track meet and baseball game between the University of Illinois and University of Wisconsin.

SELECTING JURY

Chicago, May 17.—The fourth week of the trial of Fred Linder and 21 others charged with conspiracy to take school board funds to the extent of $1,000,000 closing today without making any progress toward completion of a jury. The tenth venire was exhausted.

GET CAPTIVES OUT OF BANDITS HANDS CHINESE ARE TOLD

Ultimatum is Laid Down by Minister Schurman

(By The Associated Press)

TSAOCHWANG, Province of Shantung, May 17.—"Get the foreign captives out of the grip of the Szechow bandits and talk terms afterwards, otherwise there will be drastic action" was the ultimatum laid down to Chinese government officials here late yesterday by Dr. Jacob G. Schurman, American minister to China.

The American diplomat, who stopped off here on his way from Shanghai to Peking told the Chinese officials with banded here to negotiate with the bandits that unless the foreign prisoners were released immediately serious international complications would result, Dr. Schurman said.

"End these delays, and confusion between various departments of the government. Get the captives out and talk terms afterwards, otherwise there will be drastic action taken."

Relations between the Chinese government and the representatives of foreign countries is described on all hands as "strained" as a result of the bandit situation.

Dr. Schurman kept in constant cable communication with Washington during his stay in Shanghai and sent and received numerous messages.

J. B. Powell and other captives have sent word from their mountain prison that all the prisoners are beginning to feel the strain. Some are ill from insufficient and unaccustomed food. Others are forced to make new marches from place to place with their feet unhealed from the bruises and cuts of the rocky trail from the scene of the hold-up near Suchow, are suffering intensely.

The bandits charge that the Chinese troops have not been withdrawn, despite official assertions to the contrary. This apparently constitutes the greatest hitch to the negotiations for the captives' release.

ADAMS NAMED COLORADO SENATOR

(By The Associated Press)

DENVER, Colo., May 17.—A senatorial mantle fell upon the shoulders of a member of a family noted in Colorado for its representation in public life, when Governor William E. Sweet today appointed Alva B. Adams, Pueblo attorney and son of former Governor Alva Adams, to succeed the late United States Senator Samuel D. Nicholson, who died in March.

Altho his appointment was fought by the progressive Democrats until the last minute, Governor Sweet said today in announcing the appointment that Mr. Adams "would come enarmer to unite the factions of the Democratic party in Colorado than any other man who could have been chosen."

DITCH DIGGERS GET MORE ON AVERAGE THAN MINISTERS

Will H. Hays Tells Presbyterian Assembly Thursday

(By The Associated Press)

Indianapolis, May 17.—Declaring that the compensation of Presbyterian ministers is less, on the average, than that of alien ditch diggers, and that this situation is of moral and economic crime, Will H. Hays, speaking as an elder of the Presbyterian church at its annual assembly here tonight launched a drive to add $15,000,000 to the minister's pension fund.

The address of the president of the motion pictures producers and distributors of America and former Republican national committee chairman was delivered at the popular meeting which closed the first day's work of the 987 assembly, 301 presbyteries and 22 foreign missions.

Mr. Hays declared the question of ministers' salaries is an economic problem of the utmost gravity and that the present lack of worldly compensation is the reason for the dearth of young men candidates for the Christian ministry.

"Religion," Mr. Hays said, "is the one essential industry of the world." Without the perpetuity of the church, he declared, the public would die.

He described the minister as the appointed interpreter of God to the basistior of children, the consoler in sorrow, the "teacher of eternal values to men caught in the tangles of ephemeral things, the snares of gossip and show, care and pride and self-absorption, greed and fear and hate, and ignoble getting and spending."

In return Mr. Hays declared, the minister is rewarded with a hand to mouth living which amounts to many cases to grinding poverty. The average salary of the ten thousand Presbyterian clergymen he said was $34.67 a week, "scarcely more than the wage of a garbage collector, one-half the wage of a carpenter, one-third the wage of a mason. For the builders of the walls of the temple, one-third of the wage of the bricklayers on an apartment house."

HARDING EULOGIZES ALEXANDER HAMILTON

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 17.—Alexander Hamilton's services to the American public were eulogized by President Harding and other speakers at the unveiling here today of a statue commemorating his achievements as one of the nation's founders and as the first secretary of the treasury.

The president, in his address, described Hamilton as "the master builder" of the republic and invoked his conception of financial integrity and the sanctity of obligation as a remedy for present world ills.

"Apply Hamilton's conception of financial integrity and the sanctity of obligation to world conditions today," said the president, "and let there be asserted a leadership which rises above prejudiced opinion, whether that prejudiced opinion had its beginning in war, or is emphasized by geographic divisions, and humanity will turn to the rational and only way of restoration. There will be the substitution of hope and resolution where hatred and resentment are now hindering recovery. There will be less thought of yesterday and more of tomorrow."

The unveiling ceremonies were held on the south plaza of the treasury building where, thru the combined efforts of congress and the Alexander Hamilton memorial association the statue was erected.

RETAIL COST OF FOOD INCREASES

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, May 17.—An average increase of one per cent in the retail cost of food to the average family in April over March was reported today by the department of labor.

The cities reporting price changes of one per cent or more for the month included Chicago, Peoria and Springfield, Ill., with increases of two per cent.

The will of the late P. T. Shanahan has been filed for probate in the office of County Clerk Riggs. Mr. Shanahan's will bears the date of March 18, 1910, with M. T. Layman and J. R. Robertson as witnesses to the signature. The deceased named his wife, Mrs. Mary Shanahan and his sons, James and Edward Shanahan to execute the will.

A petition was filed asking for the probate of the will and mentions as the heirs at law the wife and the following sons: Stephen F. James M., Edward, Henry T., Michael and William Shanahan. The hearing was fixed for June 11.

Mrs. Sarah Carver was a visitor from Bluffs yesterday.

HOUSE PAYROLL COMMITTEE IS READY TO WORK

Will Ask for Payrolls of All Present and Past Officers

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 17.—Mapping out a preliminary program on which a resolution by its investigation of charges that the taxpayers money is being paid in part to political hirelings who give no service to the state, the house payroll investigating committee organized this afternoon and officially began its work.

Representative Hart, republican, Batavia, whose resolution for an investigation dating back to the Dunne administration was adopted by the house last week in preference to a resolution by minority leader Devine, for investigation of the Small administration only, was elected chairman. Representative Flack, democrat, Macomb, was chosen secretary. The other members are Weiss, Scholes and Swanson, republicans, and Devine and Peter Smith, democrats.

The chairman was authorized to write to all department heads and state officers requesting a copy of their payrolls, the names and addresses of employees and the designation of these employees as full or part time workers, a statement or any notation or explanation they might desire to be incorporated in a typewritten statement in cluding the foregoing data, and a report of the traveling expenses of their officers or department.

Chairman Hart also is to procure the payrolls and reports of all of the past state officers and department heads since July 1, 1911. All of this information is expected to be furnished by five p. m. Monday when the next meeting will be held.

Blocks Hard Roads Bill.

Efforts of senate administration leaders to pass the $100,000 road bond bill today were blocked by Senator Eastman, republican, Streator. He pointed out that only yesterday an amendment had been stricken out and the bill sent to third reading, and that under the rules the measure cannot come up for disposal for three days, or until next Wednesday.

A resolution memorializing President Harding and congress to work for reduction of sugar prices was adopted by the house.

The house passed the senate bills appropriating $5,000,000 for a cement plant for use in road building and appropriating $2,000,000 for road maintenance. They now go to the governor.

It also passed and sent to the Senate the Emmons bill requiring the commissioner of highways to provide a bond, with two securities in twice the amount of money that can be raised by the maximum levy during his term of office. This measure goes to the senate.

Representative Fekete's bill, providing that in computing the term of service required of teachers to come under the pension act, a teacher may use the time spent in military service in lieu of a like number of years in the teaching service, also was approved by the representatives.

At a late afternoon session the house spent two hours advancing bills. The same program will be followed at the short session this morning, as a majority of the members have gone either to the homes or to Louisville for the Kentucky derby.

KEPT UP THE MONOPOLY

Clever Trick Credited to Dutch Traders Who Had No Desire to Lose Lucrative Business.

There is a story to the effect that once the Dutch had a profitable monopoly in the manufacture of smoking pipes, Flanders, in a desire to cultivate craftsmanship for economic reasons, decided to make pipes, too, and quit sending money to Holland for such articles. In that way, it was planned, Flanders could not only keep Flanders money at home, but the country could sell its pipes to other people at a profit.

So the manufacture of pipes began. Seeing what this competition might lead to, the Dutch said: "We will sell our pipes at a loss in Flanders until this upstart industry shall have been ruined. Then we can raise the price higher than before." To this the people of Flanders resorted by laying a prohibitive tax upon Dutch pipes, to keep them out. Thereupon the Dutch loaded a ship with pipes, sailed it over to the coast of Flanders, and wrecked it there. It was salvaged, of course, and the people of Flanders got a shipload of pipes for nothing. For the next two or three years pipes were so ruinously cheap in Flanders that the new industry perished.

Thus the Dutch, by sacrificing one shipload of pipes, saved their monopoly.

FIRM BELIEF IN "SPIRITS"

Odd Superstition That Prevails Among Inhabitants of the Island of Luzon.

During the life of a person in Luzon, his spirit is called Tiko. After death it receives a new name. It is believed to go about in a body invisible to the eye of man, yet unchanged in appearance from the living person. If a man becomes unconscious, the natives think a vengeful spirit has lured away the soul of the sick man and they hold the ceremony of "Calling Back the Soul." Then they hold a big feast, to which they invite all the spirits in order to induce them to bring back the sick man's soul.

One is "insupak" when the spirits have made themselves known to him in a dream. He thereby declares himself to be "insupak," and as no one can prove he has not received a message from the dead he becomes a full-fledged medium. A pronged spear is supposed to protect the people from the ever-vengeful Anito, or evil spirits, who are always waiting to trip one up on the trail, to cause him to fall and hurt himself or to kill him. When a native walks alone on a mountain trail and feels his hair creeping on his scalp he knows of the Anito's presence.

Two Men in a Garden.

Two men went into a garden. The worldly wise man no sooner entered the gate than he began to count the number of mango trees, how many mangoes each tree bore, and what might be the approximate price of the orchard. His companion went to the owner, made his acquaintance, and quietly going under a mango tree, began to pluck the fruit and eat it with the owner's consent. Now who is the wiser of the two? Eat mangoes, it will satisfy your hunger. What is the good of counting the leaves and of vain calculation? The proud man of intellect is vainly busy in finding out the "why and wherefore" of creation, while the humble man of wisdom makes acquaintance with the Creator and enjoys supreme bliss in this world. —The Sayings of Sir Ramakrishna, from the Hindu Message.

Immortal Sentence.

"Sink or swim, live or die, survive or perish, I give my heart and my hand with this vote. It is my living sentiment, and by the blessing of God it shall be my dying sentiment—Independence now and forever." This is supposed to be a quotation from a speech delivered by John Adams at the session of the Continental congress in 1776. It was, however, included in a speech by Daniel Webster, delivered by him in Faneuil hall, and written the previous day in Boston. It was composed by Webster as embodying an impressive form of argument relied upon by friends and enemies of the Declaration of Independence, and was framed about various sentiments expressed by Adams at different times.

Lover Disappeared.

We were about fourteen years of age, and very deeply in love. As my parents would not allow me to have company, I had to go out on the sly. In the evening I usually went to church or the show, and he would accompany me on the way home. One night as we came up on the porch and he turned to say good night, my father opened the door and stepped out. I looked up at his blazing eyes and his stern face and then turned to look for my lover, but he was out of sight and never again have I seen him. —Chicago Journal.

Fair Enough.

"I would like to get a mirror for my office desk. Can you suggest something?"
"We still have a few polished steel French mirrors, sir. You may look into one of them, and if you make even a dent in it you may have it free of charge." —Houston Chronicle.

Reforming.

"When we girls too busy reforming one another," said Uncle Eben, "we're liable to sacrifice ourselves by not checking up on our personal shortcomings." —Washington Star.

Just Devotion.

"He plays golf with his wife."
"That's real devotion."
"Yes, that may be devotion, but, my boy, it isn't golf."

INVITED TO FURNISH FLOATS FOR PARADE

Business Firms and Lodges Will be Asked to Furnish Floats for Big Parade During the State Encampment of the U. S. W. V.

Colonel O. C. Smith, commander of the United Spanish war veterans, has invited fifty-seven lodges banks and business firms to furnish floats for the big parade on June 15, during the state encampment June 14, 15, and 16, this being the day of the dedication of the new building at the state hospital. Already twenty-two of those addressed have notified Col. Smith of their intention to have a float in the parade. Other invitations will probably be extended, but those sent to date include:

Requests for floats:
Lodges—D. A. R., Rebekahs, two lodges, Poehontas, two lodges.

Banks—Ayers National, Elliott State, Farmers' State, Farrell State.

Firms—Auto Inn, Ell Bridge Co., J. Cohn & Sons, J. Camps & Sons, Snyder Ice Co., Illinois Steel Bridge Co., Illinois Telephone Co., Jacksonville Cigar Box factory, Jacksonville Journal Co., Jacksonville Packing Co., McCarthy Gebert Cigar Co., Ogar Cigar Co., Fire Department, Cloverleaf Insurance Co., Illinois School for the Blind, State Hospital, Gravel Springs Water Co., Swift Packing Co., Cannon Produce Co., Chamber of Commerce, Hoffman Floral Co., Heintz Floral Co., Kelling Foundry, Rothschilds Clothing Co., Federal Bakery, New System Bakery, Myers Bros. Clothiers, Waddells, Rabjohns & Reid, Andre & Andre, Hopper & Hamm Furniture store, Norbury Sanatorium, Maplecrest, Norbury Sanatorium, Maplewood.

Auto Dealers—Cherry's Service station, Joy's Garage, German Brothers, S. W. Babb, E. W. Brown, J. F. Claus, Houston & McNamara, Hutson Auto and Aero Co., Lukeman Motor Co., O'Donnell, L. F. C. N. Priest Motor Co., Cadillac Service Co., Charles Stuen, Carter Clark Co., rare, Berger-Braddus Motor Co.

Forty-five committeemen appointed to solicit funds for the joint jubilee met at the Chamber of Commerce Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, all of the eighteen teams being represented, and the preliminary meeting was presided over by General Chairman H. J. Rogers.

After receiving their instructions, and printed pamphlets, they started out with great enthusiasm, and from reports made at the close of the first day's work, the general chairman feels that the full amount will be subscribed by noon today, as every one approached and willingly contributed without urging, as all seemed to be anxious to donate for this event which will mean so much to the veterans, and to the city, as well.

MISS RINEHART IN SENIOR RECITAL

Gave Splendid Program for Violin Last Night—Was Assisted by Miss Balch, Soprano

The second program given by those completing courses in the various musical lines of I. W. C. College of Music was heard in Music Hall last evening. The candidate was Miss Susanne Rinehart, violinist, candidate for the degree of Bachelor of Music, assisted by Miss Frederica Balch, soprano.

Miss Rinehart, who is a pupil of Miss Hirschberg, opened the program with the lively sonata in A, by Handel. In this number, as well as in her excerpt from the Wieniawski concerto, and her group of smaller numbers which closed the program, the beauty of Miss Rinehart's playing asserted itself. Her legato and her phrasing bespeak her musicianly mind; she plays with power as well as sweetness and limpidity; there is breadth as well as crispness, and depth as well as distinction. Miss Sapiro furnished the violinist with beautiful accompaniments. At the close of the program, in response to the eagerness of the audience, Miss Rinehart, Miss Sapiro, and Miss Larimore, organist, played "Ave Marie," by Schubert.

Miss Balch sang two groups of songs that showed her smooth clear voice to excellent advantage. Her diction is a delight and her understanding of the text and music alike make it a joy to hear her. Miss Balch's accompaniments were played by her teacher, Mme. Colard in her beautifully finished style.

MISS COTTNER WILL BE PUPIL OF AUER

Woman's College Student of Remarkable Ability in Violin to Study Under World's Greatest Teacher — Will Return Here For Coming Term.

Miss Christine Cottner, one of the most promising students in violin at the Illinois Woman's college, is to go this summer to Chicago, where she will study with Leopold Auer, the world's greatest teacher of violin. Miss Cottner came here from Medford, Okla. Before entering the college here, she had won several state prizes in Oklahoma by her remarkable violin playing. She has demonstrated her ability in public many times in this city and is considered an artist of exceptional ability.

Miss Cottner will take six lessons from Leopold Auer. He is the teacher of some of the country's greatest violinists. He is a Russian by birth and before the war had won wealth and fame in his own country with his violin. In the war he lost his fortune, and was compelled to seek it again in the new world. He is a man nearly seventy years of age, but is still a teacher of great power. Upon finishing her course in Chicago, Miss Cottner will return to the college here for the coming term. She is not only a skilled musician but an exceptional academic student. She is only seventeen years of age.

Open House at the College of Agriculture and the I. A. A. Picnic.

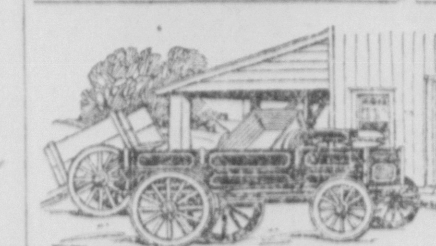

The college of agriculture will hold their open house June 28-29 and 30. The annual picnic of the I. A. A. will be on June 29. This will give the Farm Bureau members a chance to attend both the open house and the farmers' picnic. There will be the usual horse shoe contest and each county is invited to furnish a team.

Increased Freight on Limestone
The interstate commerce commission has promised an increase rate on ground limestone but the railroads have not yet issued any new supplements to the tariffs. Parties desiring limestone ought to take advantage of the situation and have it shipped before the new rate goes into effect.

Sangamon County Serum Agreement.

The Sangamon County Farm Bureau has an agreement with the veterinarians to pay 45 cents per hundred c. e. for administering the serum and in addition to this whatever price the serum cost at the manufacturing point. At the present it will quite likely cost $1.25 per hundred to furnish and administer it. Many counties have arranged for the furnishing of the serum and virus and have the farmers do their own vaccinating. The Sangamon county agreement is counted very satisfactory both to the farmers and veterinarians.

By CLARA DELAFIELD

John Ray smiled as he overheard the conversation in the office. There were changes to be made in the staff of Holmes & Co., and the selection of a new assistant manager would mean a general shifting. And Jackson and Ewing were picking young Slater for the job.

That was why Ray smiled. Slater was always ten minutes late in getting to the office and the first to depart. He dined at expensive restaurants, he took ladies out to dinner, he played golf, he was acquainted with actresses—oh, in short, he did everything that didn't follow the rules.

John Ray had come into the firm with Slater. He was only assistant to the head of the bookkeeping department, but—

He arrived punctually, and was promptly at his desk, looking across the room at the general manager (who occupied a sort of throne in the middle of the great open place). He never watched the clock.

Furthermore, he had joined a correspondence school, and the general manager, Simpkins, had been notified that he had graduated in the science of business.

And Ray ate pieces of pie at coffee stands for lunch, and worked heroically in spite of an aching head all the afternoon.

That was why Ray smiled when he heard Jackson and Ewing picking Slater as the man who would get the position.

Ray knew that Simpkins watched his men. He must have noticed how hard he worked. Every time the general manager passed Johnny Ray would shoot a quick but significant glance at him to call his attention to the fact that he was there, that he was working. Every time Slater came in late Ray would send a telegraphic registration across the room to advise Simpkins of that fact. Yes, Ray smiled.

In the president's room the matter of the appointment was being discussed. Slater's name had been proposed, and Slater was under discussion.

"The only thing against Slater," said Simpkins, "is that he lives rather rapidly outside the office. I've often met him in expensive restaurants."

"What's that! Simpkins are you a rounder, too?" demanded the president jocularly.

"No, but seriously, the man seems to be living far beyond his means."

"Then, if he's a good man, his means must be brought up to his requirements," answered the president.

"I met Arnold last week," he told me young Slater has the straightest drive from the teahouse—quite remarkable in a man who doesn't go down to the links more than once a month."

"You know there was some scandal about his engagement to Miss Van Fleet. No one knew why it was broken off."

"Yes, I heard that," said the president. "Poor chap, she treated him very badly, it appears. Oh, by the way, Donaldson—he's a member of the same club as Slater, you know—he was saying Slater roared in every member over that Memorial commission. Said he got five thousand as starter out of old Whatawad, to buy the granite for the monument."

"If young Slater could put Whatawad for five thousand cold, he looks to me like the man we want for assistant," said Simpkins.

"I guess you're about right there," answered the president. "That man certainly knows how to hustle, and he puts a tenth of the energy into the interests of Holmes & Co.— Oh, by the way, you know, I suppose, that he's trying to get Millet to scrap their accumulators and try out the Holmes accumulators for their new plant?"

"By gosh," said Simpkins, "that will be a big deal if he can put it across. I hadn't heard a word about it."

"No, Slater doesn't talk, but I got it through Charley Evans. You see, old Millet was a friend of Slater's father, and—"

"Yes, quite so," said Simpkins. "I guess it's Slater for the job, then, and a good man for the place. Now I'd like to shift Ewing to Slater's place, and make Jackson head of the bookkeeping department, and—"

"Oh, say," said the president, "there's a chap named Ray—John Ray—in the bookkeeping department I'm always getting letters from different correspondence schools, telling me what a fine chap he is. I'm sick to death of the man. Can't we promote him, or fire him, or something?"

"Why, I've got my knife into him myself," said Simpkins. "He gives me a fishlike stare every time I pass his desk. Let's send him downstairs to the packing department at the same time. Then I won't have to see his face again until I die, and he can wear out, rust out or—leave as he feels inclined."

ODD DEATH FOR CRIMINALS

Capital Punishment by Drowning Was a Common Method of Procedure for Many Centuries.

Drowning was long a method of capital punishment. Tacitus says that the Germans hang their greater criminals, but the meager and more infamous offenders were plunged under hurdles in the bogs and fens. Drowning was also a Roman punishment. The Lex Cornelia decreed that paricides should be sewn in a sack with a dog, cock viper and snake and thrown into the sea. The Anglo-Saxon codes condemned women thieves to be drowned.

In Scotland in 1556 a man convicted of theft and sacrilege was sentenced to be drowned, by the "queen's special grace." As late as 1611 a man was drowned at Edinburgh for stealing a lamb. In 1623 11 boys were sentenced to be drowned in the Edinburgh North Loch. By that time the punishment by drowning had become obsolete in England. It survived in Scotland until 1685 (the year of the drowning of Wigtown martyrs), and in France was employed as late as 1793.

Never Too Late for You to Help Yourself

LISTEN TO THIS ADVICE

Springfield, Ill.—"I can recommend two of Dr. Pierce's remedies very highly, the Favorite Prescription and the Anuric Tablets. I took the Favorite Prescription when I reached middle life and was distressed with all the ailments that come to a woman at that period, and it was a great benefit to me. Later on I was in need of a kidney medicine for I had backaches and rheumatic pains, stiff joints, and Dr. Pierce's Anuric (for kidneys and backache) gave me great relief almost immediately. It is the best kidney remedy I have ever known and I praise it highly." Mrs. R. Roberts, 1609 E. Edwards St.

You should obtain now Dr. Pierce's remedies from your nearest druggist—tablets or liquid. You will soon feel their beneficial effect.

Send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial pkg. of any of his remedies, and write for free confidential medical advice. (adv.)

Entertained Bridge Club.

Members of the East Side Thursday Bridge club were entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. E. A. Schoedsack at her home on East State street. Three tables were made up for playing and a little luncheon was served in the late afternoon.

Bridge Club Members Met Yesterday.

Members of the Thursday Bridge club met yesterday afternoon at the Tea Tray on West State street. A course luncheon was served at 1 o'clock and was followed by several hours of playing. The arrangements for the affair were in charge of Mrs. Thureman Haskell.

Tea Was Given by Alpha Eta Pi Society.

An afternoon tea was given by Alpha Eta Pi society of Illinois college Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Catherine Wilson, 1312 West State street. The guests at this delightful affair were the members of the other societies at the college and the advisory board of the Y. W. C. A. at the college. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion, spring flowers being used plentifully in the rooms.

Brooklyn Sunday School Class Had Party.

Members of the rainbow class of Brooklyn church Sunday school enjoyed a "kid" party last night at the church. All the members came in kid costumes and during the evening enjoyed a program of games and contests of various kinds.

The arrangements for the party were made by Mrs. Harriet Craver, the teacher of the class, and with Miss Olive Randle in charge of the refreshments.

Passavant Alumnae Will Meet Tonight

The Passavant Hospital Alumnae association will hold their regular monthly meeting at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the home of Miss Anita Prather, 485 East State street, Miss Prather being the president of the association. This will be a regular business meeting, and one of the matters to be taken up is in regard to the agency for the health magazine, "Hygeia," which the association is offering for sale in subscription form. The magazine has just issued its second number and is an unusually interesting work published by the American Medical association, the idea of the magazine being to teach individual and community hygiene and health notes, with the intention of preventing the use of medicines as much as possible. From the recent copy, this magazine is sure to be both interesting and instructive.

Missionary Society of Westminster Met.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Northminster church held its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the church. Mrs. Henry Day and Mrs. William Bieber were leaders. Mrs. E. H. Sheppard read an article on home mission work and Mrs. Adna Van Wormer read on the foreign work. There was a very good attendance and a very interesting meeting. After a short business session the meeting was adjourned and a pleasant social time and delicious refreshments were enjoyed.

Mrs. Abbott Sherwood, Is Guest of Honor.

Mrs. Abbott Sherwood of Alton, who is a guest of Mrs. Harrison King in this city, was the guest of honor at a 1 o'clock luncheon Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Cole on West College avenue. There were twenty-five guests at this charming affair.

Miss Margaret Clampit entertained a number of friends at bridge Thursday afternoon at her home on Diamond Court, this affair also being in honor of Mrs. Sherwood. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent, dainty refreshments being served during the hours.

D. A. R. in Annual Business Meeting.

The regular annual meeting of the Rev. James Caldwell chapter D. A. R. was held Thursday afternoon at the Duncan Memorial home. At this time reports were heard from all the officers and chairmen of standing committees. These reports indicated a very prosperous and successful year's work and a great deal that is worth while accomplished. The report of the treasurer showed the financial affairs of the chapter in a very satisfactory condition. Another matter which received attention was the election of two new directors, Mrs. E. E. Crabtree and Mrs. W. T. Wilson being named for a two year term.

Surprise Party.

Wednesday being the fiftieth birthday of John A. Ray, 428 South East street, his friends set about to surprise him. Coming home in the evening he found a party of relatives and friends at his home and a delicious supper prepared. Music and conversation filled in the evening hours and a general good time was enjoyed by all. Mrs. E. R. Litter who recently returned from California was a guest. During the evening the marriage of Miss Hazel Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ray, to Trusten S. Stewart of Franklin, was announced.

Friends of Miss Hazel Ray and Trusten S. Stewart will be surprised to learn of their marriage which took place in Springfield, February 23, of this year. Mrs. Stewart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Ray of 428 South East street, and for the past five years has made her home in this city. She is a graduate of the Arenzville high school. Mr. Stewart is the son of Mrs. Ella Tandy Stewart of Franklin, Ill., where he has spent most of his life. He is a graduate of the Franklin high school and later attended Drake university in Des Moines, Iowa. He was also a member of the world war and spent a number of months in France and Germany.

The marriage was performed by Rev. W. Rothenburger of Springfield Central Christian church and was kept secret because of the serious illness of the bride's mother.

Young People Enjoy Picnic Supper

The timber of George Woods was the place of rendezvous for a number of young people who motored there yesterday. The afternoon was spent playing games and in the evening a basket-lunch was enjoyed by all. In the evening the party returned to Jacksonville where they enjoyed dancing at the home of J. N. Kennedy. At a late hour a luncheon was served after which a toast program was carried out.

Those composing the party were Louise Hodapp, Agnes Kennedy, Dorothy Graef, Gortrade Hamilton, Mary Clancy, Elizabeth Crowe, Lucille Kennedy, Margaret Donovan, Robert Walsh, Marvel Fitzgerald, Matthew McKavitt, Byron Gwinn, Cecil Doyle, Gerald Langdon, Edward Flynn and Jerome Langdon. J. L. McDonald and Miss Genevieve Herberster chaperoned the party.

DEATHS

Bell.
Henry Bell, a prominent farmer residing west of Manchester, died at 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon after a week's illness, following a stroke of paralysis. He was about 70 years of age and had resided many years on the farm where he died. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Mrs. Lillian Moore of Patuxent, and Mrs. Mary Tankersly of Manchester.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the Methodist church at Manchester with interment in the local cemetery, near that place.

James Mann, division freight agent of the Chicago & Alton, with headquarters in Springfield, made an official visit to Jacksonville yesterday.

SEEKS FACTS ABOUT EARLY RESIDENT

J. A. Dobbins Writes Letter Asking for Information About His Sister Who Lived Here Many Years Ago.

J. A. Dobbins of Sedalia, Mo., has sent the Journal the following taken from an Oklahoma paper, making inquiry about an early resident of Jacksonville, Mrs. Rebecca Osterholt, whose place of residence he now seeks.

"T. J. Dobbins of Sedalia, Mo., and son, J. A. Dobbins of the same place have been visiting in this vicinity for the past week or more. The senior Mr. Dobbins is a man over eighty years of age and for many years he has been searching for a sister that he had not seen since 1862. His quest of many years was rewarded in locating his sister at Pharaoh or Spring Hill as it is generally spoken of; the long lost sister being Mrs. Nancy M. Parsons, mother of our former townsman, Andy Parsons.

"The story as given us is as follows: Mrs. Parsons whose maiden name was Nancy M. Dobbins was born at Bloomfield, Green county, Indiana and when a small girl of about 10 years of age they moved to Lancaster, Schuyler county, Mo. This was in the year of 1862 and about four years later Nancy was bound out to a family named White and went with them to Arkansas and in 1870 they moved on to Texas location in Comanche county. In 1885 brother and sister lost track of each other and only recently was he able to locate her thru correspondence with J. L. Parsons of Sidney, Texas.

"Mr. Dobbins is now trying to locate two others of his family, a brother, James K. Dobbins last heard of in Helena, Mont., in 1898, and a sister, Mrs. Rebecca Osterholt, last heard of at Jacksonville, Ill. in 1885. Any information as to their whereabouts address James K. Dobbins, Sedalia, Mo., R. F. D. 2.

"Mrs. Nancy Parsons of Pharaoh is the mother of 12 children, ten of whom are now living. She has 45 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren."

LARGE AUDIENCES AT COMMUNITY MEETINGS

People of Murrayville and Woodson Vicinities Gather by Hundreds to Hear Programs and Addresses — Band Gives Concert in Park

The best meeting thus far in the community co-operation series were held last night at Murrayville and Woodson. Fred High made two addresses, and at Murrayville a musical program was given by the Elite Six orchestra and students from the Illinois College Conservatory of Music. Miss Ruth Melba Armstrong sang two solos. Miss Ruth Dorwart gave two piano numbers, and Arthur Perbix played two selections on the violin, accompanied by Prof. Kritch as pianist.

Three hundred people attended the meeting in Carlson's hall at Murrayville. Mr. High pointed out that the purpose of the movement was to aid the citizens in keeping the business of the county in the county. It appears that sixty per cent of the business is now going out of Morgan county, in that section. The people entered into the project with enthusiasm.

At Woodson the meeting was held in the park, where the band of that place, assisted by a number of Jacksonville musicians, gave a concert and played for the mass singing, led by W. A. Berryman. People came in autos and filled the square for a considerable distance from the bandstand.

Tonight the meeting will be held at Mercedia. On Saturday a noon luncheon has been arranged at Waverly, where Mr. High will deliver an address. He is now beginning to get out the copy for his story of Jacksonville, which will be sent broadcast thru-out the great industrial centers and bring the city to the attention of the entire country.

PETERSBURG CITIZENS SEE TRUCK DEMONSTRATION

Six citizens of Petersburg and a representative of the American LaFrance Fire Engine Co., visited the local fire department yesterday and witnessed a demonstration of the city's motor truck pumper. Chief Hunt and his men took the machine out to the pumping station and made it climb hills and throw water for the benefit of the visitors. Rides on a truck for Petersburg were onced at a meeting of the city council last night. The mayor of Petersburg was a member of the party here yesterday.

GENERAL MISSIONARY BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

Annual Session Will be Held Here Next Week at Mt. Emory Baptist Church. Session Open Tuesday Morning.

The annual session of the General Missionary Baptist State Association of Illinois will convene next Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Mt. Emory Baptist church, corner of Marion and Church streets, and will continue in session until Friday night.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be devoted to the missionary and educational work of the women of Illinois. The session will be presided over by Mrs. Willie Gear of Coip, Illinois. Mrs. Georgia D. Baptist, Ashburn, president of the National Baptist Missionary and Educational convention, whose next session will be held in September in Houston, Texas, comes as a national representative, and will address the convention upon "The Needs of the Work in America." The Educational and Missionary work of the Women's convention is wholly foreign.

On Thursday morning the general association will open, and Rev. W. P. Washington, D. D., moderator, will preside. The important matters that will be discussed before the body will be, state mission work, foreign mission work, suggesting plans concerning the National Baptist Seminary at Nashville, Tennessee, the Aged Ministers' Home at Golconda and the establishment of a state paper.

The election of officers will take place on Friday. There are three announced candidates for the office of Moderator: Rev. B. H. Hunter of Mt. Pisgah church, Bloomington; Rev. W. H. Woods, of Maywood; and Dr. C. H. Clark of Ebenezer, Chicago.

Mt. Emory is sparing no pains in making this meeting a success. She has all her plans and arrangements made for a grand and glorious meeting. On Thursday afternoon from three to four o'clock Rev. Henry Allen Boyd, of Nashville, Tennessee, secretary of the National Baptist Publishing Board will speak on "The Success and Failure of the National Baptist Convention." Rev. J. H. Frank of Louisville, Ky., president of the Foreign Mission board on Friday will submit a report on foreign missions in Africa.

Rev. W. Henry Snowden, pastor of Mt. Emory, desires to say to the good white people of this city who are interested in the aged or worn-out ministers, and in foreign missions, that any donation they might be willing to give to aid the work will be thankfully received through mail, by check or donation to him on or before Wednesday of next week. The same will be kindly acknowledged by the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hennefert who have been spending several days visiting at the home of Mrs. Allie Lee on West Lafayette street, returned to their home in Monmouth Thursday.

Miss Nellie Morgan, 407 College avenue has returned from a very pleasant two weeks' visit with friends and relatives in White Hall.

RAMMELKAMP BACK FROM CONFERENCE

Number of Prominent Graduates of Illinois College at Indianapolis for Presbyterian Assembly—President Was Chairman of Body

Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp returned Thursday morning from Indianapolis, where he attended the Pre-Assembly conference of the Presbyterian colleges in the country. Dr. Rammelkamp was chairman of the conference. He also met in conference with the presidents of the Presbyterian colleges of Illinois, to discuss details of the endowment campaign which these colleges are to stage during the coming year.

Dr. Rammelkamp met the Rev. Lynn W. Hirtle, a graduate of Illinois college, who is now located at Russellville, Ark., and who was in Indianapolis as one of the commissioners to the assembly.

Another prominent graduate of the college at the assembly was William Jennings Bryan of the class of 1881, who was one of the foremost candidates for the office of moderator. Rev. Charles Eames, the returned missionary from China who visited in this city for sometime, was also at the assembly.

Nature's aids
to Beauty

You have heard it said, perhaps, that beauty is one-quarter nature and three-quarters care. No truer statement was ever made.

True beauty does not reside in the features, but in the velvety softness and attractive coloring of a healthy skin, the glory of healthy hair becoming dressed, and the universal charm of well-kept hands and nails.

Every woman is endowed by nature with these attractions or can acquire them through the regular practice of proper care and the employment of simple and reliable beauty aids.

We will consider it a privilege to advise with any woman on such matters. And we absolutely guarantee the toilet requisites we recommend.

DELEGATION TO VISIT WAVERLY

Object is to Advertise Delegation of New Veterans' Cottages—Band, Jubilee Singers and Orchestra Music Part of Program.

A delegation from the Jacksonville State Hospital will make a trip to Waverly this evening to advertise the Jubilee which will be held in Jacksonville June 15th when the new veterans' cottages will be dedicated at the local institution.

The program has been arranged by E. L. Hill, managing officer of the state hospital. The veterans' band, the Jubilee Singers and orchestra music will be part of the program.

All boosters who can accompany them on this trip should be ready not later than 5:30 or 6:00 o'clock, and should bring everything possible with them in their auto.

Word was received yesterday that Havana Post No. 138 will send a delegation to Jacksonville on June 15th.

Howard C. Koonz of Springfield has invited the local legion to attend a meeting to be held in Springfield May 25th. A number of local men will attend and will distribute literature and other advertising matter relative to the local dedication exercises.

A committee has the matter under consideration of having excursion rates to Jacksonville from all points in Illinois. This rate will apply to the general public as well as veterans.

MORGAN COUNTY W. C. T. U. MEETS TODAY

Sessions Will Be Held in First Baptist Church—Program for 1923

Remember the meeting of the Morgan County W. C. T. U. institute which will attend at the First Baptist church, from nine o'clock this morning until five o'clock this afternoon.

This is an annual affair, and, although especially intended for the instruction of the officers, the public is very cordially invited.

For the information of those who may believe that, now the eighteenth amendment has been passed, the work of the W. C. T. U. is finished, the following shows the program outlined for the year 1923:

Objectives for 1923
Securing intelligent support and observance of the Eighteenth Amendment and laws for its enforcement by well-informed public opinion based upon:

Systematic instruction in the scientific facts concerning alcoholic drinks in all schools.

The reaching of all citizens with these facts especially the facts concerning beer and wine.

Popular education as to the dangers in patent medicines containing alcohol or habit-forming drugs and the reasons for the decreasing use of alcohol as medicine.

A new emphasis on pledged total abstinence on the part of youth in Sunday schools, young people's and educational institutions, and of leaders in all lines of public influence and activity.

Promoting intelligence in the privileges and duties of citizenship with particular reference to the observance and enforcement of prohibition laws, thru courses of study adapted to both native and foreign-born women.

Inviting the co-operation of organizations promoting international understanding in making known the international aspects of the liquor problem, the handicap it imposes in mission fields; co-operating in promoting temperance education in all lands; assisting national societies federated in the World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union in their work of organization to the end that women throughout the world may work effectively toward the goal of prohibition of the liquor traffic in their respective nations.

Focusing the Jubilee Campaign for 1,000,000 members in 1924 thru:

Trio teams in our 15,000 local unions;

National, state and department organizers;

Co-operative bodies;

The efforts of every member.

J. H. S. SENIORS TO FINISH NEXT WEEK

Final examination in all senior subjects in the high school will be held next week. Beginning Tuesday the exams will close Friday morning. This will include the work of all seniors who are taking only senior subjects.

However, there are a number of graduates in sophomore and junior courses who will take the examinations in these subjects at the regular time. The high school follows the custom of the colleges in dismissing the seniors several days earlier than the rest of the students.

Captain

NAMES FOR THE HOTEL

Arthur Swain of Sinclair, who while not a resident of the city is a frequent visitor here, is very much interested in the proposed hotel. Mr. Swain suggests the name of Jacksonville Inn.

Mrs. J. T. Smith writes the Journal and expresses her preference for The Athens as the name of the new hotel. Mrs. Smith writes: "I was much interested in the address of Father Formax at the jubilee banquet and also the toast given by Father Andrew Smith, 'The Athens of the West.'"

"Why do we not appreciate our city enough to give to some prominent enterprise this name? Our people are loyal. We are patriotic and where can you find more cultured people? Where, as our esteemed Mr. Easley Moore states, have they sent out for service better or more distinguished men than is true of Jacksonville?"

Our city, long may she live. Our country's flag, O'er all to rest. Our service to all to give. May it always be the best "The Athens."

PLAN MEMORIAL FOR MURRAYVILLE CHURCH

M. E. Congregation Will Honor Deceased Members at Service Sunday Morning—Records Kept Since 1853.

A memorial service in honor of the deceased members of the Murrayville M. E. church will be held Sunday morning at 10:45 o'clock in the church there.

Records of deaths in the church membership have been kept since 1853, and there are about one hundred names on the roll. Most of the members who have passed away are buried at Old Bethel cemetery southwest of Murrayville, where the church formerly stood.

The pastor, Rev. W. C. Harnes, will preach the memorial sermon. The roll of the dead will be called by W. O. Beadles, chairman of the records committee. A committee will pay special honor to the deceased members by the ceremony of presenting a large bouquet of flowers during the church service. The committee consists of Mrs. O. N. Angelo, Mrs. Albert Hayes, Mrs. Warren Jones, Mrs. Harry Cain and Miss Ruth Miller. There will be special music by the church choir. Other committees interested in preparing the service are:

Records—W. O. Beadles, A. L. Wyatt and J. K. Cunningham.

Program—Mrs. Edith Miller, Mrs. Nettie Million and T. G. Beadles.

CLARENCE E. HENRY WEDS MISS HILDA COX

Were United in Marriage by Dr. G. W. Miller of Woodson.

The marriage of Miss Hilda Cox of Nortonville and Clarence E. Henry of Woodson was solemnized at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening. The ceremony was performed by Dr. G. W. Miller at his home in Woodson, and was witnessed by only a few intimate friends and relatives of the young people.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cox, who reside in the Nortonville neighborhood. She received her education in the schools of her home community and is one of the popular young women of Nortonville.

The groom is a son of Mrs. Luella Henry of Woodson, and has spent all his life in that part of the county. He is a young man of excellent character and his many friends join in extending congratulations and good wishes. It is probable that Mr. and Mrs. Henry will make their home in Woodson.

I. W. C. ALUMNAE GATHERING FUNDS

The Jacksonville branch of the Alumnae plans to put thru one stunt each month for the benefit of the endowment.

A market of which Mrs. Emily Allan Fay was chairman, cleared $23.78; the rummage sale, of which Mrs. Annie Groves Atkins was chairman, cleared $53.50; the Easter market, chairmaned by Mrs. Edna Osborne, brought in $38.10, and the movie benefit, for which Mrs. Alice Briggs Hopper, acted as chairman, cleared $50.00, a sign taken by the alumnae collected $3.90, making a total earned to date by the Jacksonville branch of $169.28.

Another feature is planned for May. This club meets the first Saturday of each month at Peacock Inn.

COFFEE SALESMAN IS SPEAKER AT KIWANIS

Tells Members of Growth of Salesmanship—Club Decides on Camp Site Near Arnold.

J. V. Cole of Mt. Vernon, the Illinois representative of the Cheek, Neal Coffee Co., was the principal speaker at the meeting of the local Kiwanis club Thursday. He gave the club members and guests some interesting tips on national advertising, the growth of the coffee business, salesmanship and brand building.

He stated that the importation of coffee into this country in 1922 totaled 1,238,012,078 pounds, ranking third in value among all imported articles. It used to be that South American coffee merchants would not accept a United States dollar, as they knew nothing about it. Now this kind of money is welcomed as the world's best.

Salesmanship was once looked upon as a nondescript business. The traveling man had no profession, but was looked upon as a drummer. Now it is different. The salesman is king in his world; as a seller he has power, and can go as high as the limits of his ability will allow.

The speaker stated that he had lived in this state about a year and a half, and had found its citizens responsive and alive to business. The buyer always appreciates the salesman's intelligence, knowledge of his line, and this appeal, together with his honor and personality, form the chief assets of a successful salesman.

The Kiwanis club has selected a camp site in the strip of timber near the hard road this side of the Wabash subway at Arnold. Miss Eleanor Moore the owner of the property, has given consent to use the land for this purpose for the convenience of scout troops who wish to make an overnight hike, or for other camping parties sponsored by the Kiwanis club.

Guests present at the meeting Thursday included B. M. McDonald and Walter W. Schultz of the United States Chamber of Commerce, N. J. Nelson of St. Louis, Fred High of Chicago, J. L. Suter and W. B. Rogers of this city.

OPERATTA GIVEN BY JUNIOR HIGH

Successful Presentation of "The Witch of Fairy Dell" in High School Auditorium

Pupils of the junior high school, assisted by high school pupils, presented "The Witch of Fairy Dell" in the high school auditorium Thursday night. The audience was of such size that it filled the great assembly room. This very pretty musical production was given under the direction of Miss Lena Hopper, supervisor of music in the Jacksonville schools, and Miss Ethel Cloyd of the junior high school faculty assisted having charge of the speaking parts.

The costuming and stage settings were very effective and added to the success of the presentation. The principal and members of the chorus were all deserving of commendation and the audience manifested its enthusiasm by frequent applause. Miss Clara Smith was at the piano and the program gave the following:

Junior character: Marguerite, Catherine Goshel, Fairy Queen, Dorothy Bernice Graham, Marguerite's mother, Elizabeth Hardesty, Marie, Wanda King, Louise, Leah Tayman, Christine Mary Francis Breeding, Rose, Elizabeth James, Adaline, Margaret Benson, Isabel, Rose War, Punch, Mildred Fordwood, Village boys and girls, Fairies, Seventh Grade Pupils, High school characters are: Countess, Lois Harney, Witch, Faye Carroll, Frankfurters, Lucille Stranberg, Flower girl, Eleanor Andre, Water Cress and Flower Chorus, Treble Clef Club Quartet: Harry Stone, Ralph Corbridge, Russel Deatherage, John Morris.

Solo violinist—Lyndie Conboy; Violins: Sheldon Nicol, Mildred Bridgeman, Ada Galley, Jeanette Conboy, Elsie Cannon, Melva Moses.

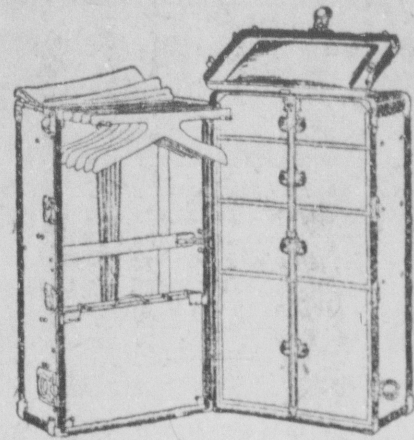

Miss Hopper's work as supervisor of music in the schools is done in a most satisfactory way and the presentation last night added to the good record. John Hackett was in charge of the lighting effects and in every way the production was well staged.

The Ladies of Salem Aid Society will hold a market commencing at 9 a. m. Saturday, May 19th at H. & H. Furniture Co.

FOUR COUNTY REUNIONS TO BE HELD MAY 29

American Legion Posts in Four Counties Arranging for Big Reunion this Month.

Roodhouse, May 17.—By order of the committee on convention, of the American Legion posts, in the four counties, arranging for the first reunion, May 29, has been officially announced as the date for the meeting of all delegates.

At 2 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce rooms in Jacksonville this body will assemble to make the final plans for staging this tremendous affair.

Meredonia Bay will probably be the spot picked for the meeting, as it holds the best advantages for pleasure seekers and outing facilities are better than any other near this territory.

The Roodhouse band on their annual outing have picked this place and other bands are asked also to be present on the date, which will be announced later.

All legion posts in the four counties are asked to send a delegation and the auxiliaries from each post are especially invited to be present at this session.

BURLINGTON STORING QUANTITIES OF COAL

The different railroads have been strongly advising the public to take advantage of the summer season to store their coal for winter on account of the prospective car shortage which occurs nearly every winter. The Burlington railroad officials believe in following out their own teachings, therefore they are storing 500,000 tons of coal for winter use, and in this way all of the surplus coal cars on the system are now being kept busy.

The bad order car situation on this situation has shown wonderful improvement, and the road is now in very good shape, in that respect. Work is now being rushed, preparing all grain cars, so as to be ready for the annual grain car demand.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Much of Arenzville were city shoppers on Thursday.

ONE BIG INNING GIVE CUBS GAME

Score All of Their Runs in Seventh—Alexander Fails in Effort to Keep Perfect Control Record

PHILADELPHIA, May 17.—Chicago enjoyed one big inning today and defeated Philadelphia in the opening game of the series, 7 to 4. Alexander was taken out in the sixth after his record for perfect control games had been shattered, three Phillies drawing passes. Meadows pitched fine ball until the seventh when he was driven from the mound.

"Cy" Williams hit his fourteenth home run of the season in the fourth inning.

AMERICANS START FIGHT TO REGAIN CUP

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, May 17.—On the historic St. Andrews golf course, the very home of golf, eight of the best amateurs of the United Kingdom will begin tomorrow their effort to take the Walker cup away from the Americans who came to England with the special purpose of retaining that emblem of team supremacy in the world of golf.

Eight 2 ball foursomes will be played tomorrow over the amateurs old course and on Saturday a similar number of matches in singles will finish the Walker cup competition of 1923.

Captain Robert Gardner of the American team and Robert Harris, leader of the British players, this afternoon elected the men who are to make the struggle in the foursomes. There were no surprises over the players picked to represent Great Britain but everyone who is following the play of the Americans and this includes almost every visitor to and every resident of St. Andrews above the age of twelve, was surprised to discover that Dr. O. F. Willing of Portland, Oregon, and Fred Wright, Jr., of Los Angeles, were not included in Gardner's list.

Captain Gardner in explaining why he had not chosen Dr. Willing for the foursomes tomorrow, said it was his desire "to give everybody a chance." He added that he would not Willing and Wright in the singles on Saturday, removing two of the members of the American team who play in the foursomes tomorrow. Gardner said he considered Willing a better player in singles matches than in other competition.

At ten o'clock tomorrow morning the first match will start with Jess Sweetser and Outmet opposing Roger Wethered and Cyril Tolley. Then will follow Gardner and Max Merston, playing against Harris and C. V. L. Hoodman. George V. Rotan and H. Davidson Herron against E. W. E. Holder and W. L. Hope, and Harrison R. Johnston and John F. Neville against John Wilson and W. A. Murray.

SHOCKER'S WINNING STREAK IS CHECKED

Yankees Stop Brown's Star Slabman, Winning 9 to 3—Ruth Gets Fifth Home Run

ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 17.—New York checked Shocker's winning streak of five straight games, and beat St. Louis today, 9 to 2. The Brown's star moundman was batted out of the box in less than three innings. Rush was ordered out of the field in the eighth for protesting a called ball. Babe Ruth got his fifth homer of the season in the ninth off Bayne when he hit into the right field stands with no one on base.

McManus clouted a four bagger in the second, the ball going into the left field stands.

THROW TO SEE WISCONSIN GAME

URBANA, Ill.—When Illinois plays Wisconsin baseball Saturday afternoon on Illinois field, it is certain for the local season. The Illini have just one more game and that is at Ann Arbor on May 24.

There should be mighty close to 10,000 people on deck Saturday providing the weather man is lenient. The big interscholastic crowd will be there, first of all, let alone the fans who will drive in from all around the state.

The Badger-Illini encounter should prove interesting on the strength of the close game which the two teams played at Madison. Illinois is now probably out of the running for the conference championship. The loss to Ohio in an unfinished game played in the rain was a bitter blow. But the Illini will strive to the limit to win their remaining contests.

Fates are unkind to Ott Vogel who likes to play the outfield. He started the season at first and must finish behind the bat although in the interim he has played center field. The reconstruction gives "Dutch" Durant a permanent job in right field. The Wheaton boy has worked hard and has had much bad luck but now he finishes as a regular.

Cliff Jackson is likely to be selected to pitch against the Badgers and it will be his last appearance on Illinois field, although he may have another chance in the Michigan game.

Walter Beddingfield of Jos Prairie transacted business in Jacksonville Thursday.

MERCHANTS DEFEAT PRESS TEAM 10 TO 2

The Merchants defeated the Press team in a Twilight League game on State hospital diamond Thursday evening by a score of 10 to 2.

Shelton, hurler of the Press team was wild and his support was not of the best and this accounted for several of the Merchants' runs. Flynn went in the last inning and held the Merchants safe.

Zell pitched a good game for the Merchants and received fine support. The score by innings: Merchants . . . 532 0x—10
Press Team . . . 011 00—2

Batteries—Press: Shelton and Flynn and Flynn and Sparger; Merchants: Zell and Magill.

EUREKA DEFEATED ILLINOIS COLLEGE

Eureka defeated Illinois college at baseball on Illinois field yesterday afternoon by a score of 15 to 2.

Illinois' defeat came largely on inability to solve the delivery of Dennis, Eureka hurler who held the Blue and White to three hits.

Roberts started the game for Illinois. He was not in form and retired in favor of O'Brien in the fourth inning who held the visitors better.

GIANTS WON OVER CINCINNATI 13 TO 3

New York, May 17.—The New York Nationals defeated Cincinnati easily today in their last game of the series 13 to 6. Muesel and Kelly each hit home runs for New York with two runners on the base. Jess Barnes pitched his first complete game of the series. Roush of Cincinnati hit a home run, a double, a single and a sacrifice in four times up.

Score:
Cincinnati—000 012 012—6 12 3
New York—003 054 01x—13 14 1

Batteries—Donohue, Keck and Wingo; J. Barnes and Snyder, Smith.

GRIMM'S HITTING STREAK IS BROKEN

BOSTON, May 17.—Charles John Grimm, first baseman of the Pittsburgh Pirates, ended his string of consecutive game hitting today with a score of 25, failing to beat the modern record by sixteen safeties. The break in the string was the result of a hairline decision by the official scorer.

In the ninth inning with two out Grimm hit a ball vigorously thru the box and it was knocked down by Larry Kops. Braves short stop who failed to field cleanly enough to get his man at first. Opinion was divided as to whether Kopf was to get an error or Grimm a hit.

John Langdon was a business visitor from Murfreesboro Thursday.

Walter Shoemaker and sons of Joy Prairie made a business trip to this city yesterday.

CHAPIN RESIDENT IS PAINFULLY INJURED

W. P. McAdams Has Finger Severed While Operating Circular Saw—Other New Notes from Chapin Community

Chapin, May 17.—W. P. McAdams met with a painful accident Tuesday while operating a circular saw he severed the forefinger of his left hand, also badly cutting two others. Dr. Smith dressed the injuries and later Mr. McAdams went to Jacksonville for further treatment.

Mrs. Ada Funk and son, Monte Funk motored to Virden Monday to transact business and look after Mrs. Funk's farming interests. They were accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Ross and children of Jacksonville.

Word was received here Tuesday that Mrs. Vowles, widow of the late Dr. Vowles, former residents had passed away at a Quincy hospital following an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. Earl Fox is confined to her home suffering with neuralgia.

Mrs. Ray Brockhouse entertained the Household Science club Wednesday afternoon.

The community co-operative meeting at the grade school assembly was well attended considering the inclement weather and bad roads. Excellent music by a Jacksonville high school glee club and a party of girls from the Woman's college was much enjoyed. A splendid address by Mr. High concluded the program.

Mrs. Gustav Onken will go to St. Charles, Ill., Wednesday to visit for several days with her daughter, Miss Johanna Onken, who is a member of the high school faculty at that place.

Mrs. George Nortrup was called to Neelyville Tuesday on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. C. B. Joy was hostess to The Coterie Wednesday afternoon. On account of the bad condition of the roads many of the members were unable to be present. Roll call was answered with Current Events. Mrs. Alice Joy read an excellent paper on "Recent American Women Writers." Mrs. Newton Wilson gave several piano selections and several Victrola records were enjoyed. In a left handed writing contest the prize was awarded to Mrs. L. P. Cowdin. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

SPECIAL DELIVERY SERVICE WITH CANADA

Col. Paul Henderson, second assistant postmaster general is calling particular attention at the present time to the fact that effective Jan. 1, 1923, a formal arrangement was concluded with Canada providing for the exchange of special delivery mail, subject to a special delivery fee, in each country for 20 cents for each article.

The arrangement supercedes the previous agreement whereby an article received in the United States from Canada bearing a United States special delivery stamp was accorded special delivery service in this country without additional charge.

Full payment of the fee of 20 cents on special delivery mail for Canada is required, any insufficiently prepaid special delivery mail inadvertently sent to Canada being subject on delivery in that country to a charge equal to double the deficiency.

FUNERAL OF AGED BLUFFS WOMAN TODAY

Remains of Mrs. Caroline Nortrup
to Be Laid to Rest This Afternoon—Other Bluffs News Notes

Bluffs, May 17.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Caroline Nortrup will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon from the Lutheran church at Neeleyville, with interment in the Neeleyville cemetery. The services will be in charge of the funeral services at the home and also at the church.

Mrs. Nortrup died at her home at 8 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, aged 80 years. Her death came suddenly and unexpectedly as she had not been ill, death being due to her advanced age. Her husband, Richard Nortrup, Sr., preceded her in death six years ago.

The following sons and daughters survive: Dick Nortrup, Arthur and Ed of Bluffs; Luke and Richard, Neeleys; Mrs. Fred Shone and Mrs. George Nortrup, Chapin. One brother, John Pieper, Winchester and two half brothers, Dick Brockhouse, Henry Brockhouse and three half sisters, Mrs. Henry Knoepfel, Mrs. Mary Huffner and Miss Margaret Brockhouse survive.

The senior class play "The Touchdown" a comedy in four acts, was presented to a full house Tuesday evening. The play was pleasing throughout and showed careful training and preparation.

Each member of the senior class had a part.

The baccalaureate service was held at the M. E. church Sunday evening with Rev. E. T. Palmer in charge assisted by Rev. H. D. Heidemeich and E. J. Rees. Music was furnished by Miss Vera McCaleb, Mrs. E. T. Palmer and the glee club of the B. C. H. John Pine of Winchester was a business visitor in Bluffs Tuesday.

Ross Pine of Okmulgee, Okla., and Mrs. Anna McLaughlin of Springfield were called here by the death of Stanley Pine, the eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pine. John Pine of Winchester and John Green of Riggton were also called here to attend the funeral.

Miss Myra Childs of Palmyra is the guest of her sister, Miss Helen Childs.

Herman Dunham and family spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives in New Salem.

Harry Conners and family have moved into the J. C. Likes residence on Main street.

Ira Little held a public sale at his home on Stanton street Saturday and returned to his former home in Quincy.

Frank Schmidt and family have moved into the Monroe Taylor property recently vacated by John Pine and family.

Mrs. N. E. Kellen and Mrs. Charles Fitzsimmons were business callers in Chapin Wednesday.

Our moving down near the railroad track has brought our prices down, so our customers get more value for less money than elsewhere. Our quality the highest; our prices the lowest. Just received, a car of bale ties.

Pennsylvania Hard Coal For 1923

The eastern states have just gone through their greatest coal shortage. There is no assurance that the spring and summer tonnage will ever get caught up with the demand in 1923.

On September 1st the Present Mine Wage Scale on Hard Coal Expires

The hard coal miners want more money. Their low day pay scale is about $5.00. The low day scale for soft coal miners is about $7.50. This is what the hard coal miners are asking for. It looks like more money and higher priced coal or a strike. Take your pick and take your chances.

Get Your Hard Coal Early and You Are Safe. Prices will not change much this year. The most important factor now in anthracite is that of getting it. It will be impossible to make up the lost tonnage and the east will be given the preference. So the wise householder will get his coal now while it can be obtained.

Lasting Satisfaction in the Hupmobile

Satisfaction is perhaps the one word which best describes the feeling of every Hupmobile owner.

Satisfaction—with the faithful way it performs the tasks he sets for it to do; with the fact that it requires next to nothing in the way of expert care and adjustment; with low costs that stay low all the year 'round.

Satisfaction, in short, because the Hupmobile always does the things he wants it to do in the way he wants it to do them.

AS LUCKY AS POLYCRATES

Pittsburgh High School Girl Recovered Lost Ring in a Manner Really Remarkable.

If lost and found rings could talk, what interesting stories we should have! Ever since Polycrates found his lost ring in the stomach of a fish back in the Sixth century, B. C.—and doubtless even before then—lost articles, especially jewels, have "returned" in picturesque and interesting ways. Here, for example, is the story of a ring, lost only a few weeks ago, that is quite as extraordinary as that of the ring of Polycrates.

In the high school of Crafston, a suburb of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, the members of each class provide themselves with rings of special design as class mementos. A few weeks ago a girl in the senior class let one of the boys take her ring, which shortly afterward he left on a table in his room. There his aunt saw it and, supposing that it belonged to her nephew, put it on her finger and then went with a party of friends on an automobile trip.

Somewhere in Virginia, 200 miles or more from Pittsburgh, the tourists stopped at a water trough by the roadside. Some time after leaving it the aunt noticed that the ring was gone. Since she did not know when it had disappeared, she made no effort to find it.

Later another party of tourists stopped at the watering trough, and a lady among them found the ring. Now here is the strange part of the story. The finder also lived in Crafston, though she was unknown to the loser. On returning home the woman showed the ring to a girl who lived next door. The girl, who was a high school pupil, at once recognized it as a senior class ring. Inside the band the woman found the initials of the owner and returned the ring to her before the girl had even discovered that it was lost!—Youth's Companion.

HAD TO PROVE BRAVERY

Shoshone Indians Had Little Use for Other Virtues in the Bravery of the Tribes.

As war was their chief occupation, bravery was the first virtue among the Shoshone Indians of the American Northwest. None could hope to be distinguished without having given proof of it, nor could there be any preference or influence among the nation without some warlike achievement. The important events which gave reputation to a warrior, and entitled him to a new name were: Killing a white (or grizzly) bear, stealing individually the horses of the enemy, leading a party who happened to be successful either in plundering horses or destroying the enemy, and lastly, scalping an enemy warrior.

These acts seemed of nearly equal dignity, but the last, that of taking an enemy warrior's scalp, was an honor quite independent of the act of vanquishing him. To kill one's adversary was of no importance unless the scalp was brought from the field of battle. Were a warrior to slay any number of his enemies in action, and others were to obtain the scalps or first touch the dead, they would have all the honors, since they had borne off the trophy.

The Child's Sea.

A child would take a sample of it (the sea) in a bucket, and consider that in all its aspects; and then it would know that the sea is a great many bucketfuls of water, and further that by an odd freak of destiny this water is not fit to drink. Storms and ships and sand castles and lighthouses and all the other side-shows would follow later; but in the meantime the child would have seen the sea in a bucket, as it had previously seen the moon in a looking glass, so would know all about it. The moon is a variable and interesting kind of lamp; the sea is buckets and buckets and buckets full of water. I think the stars are holes in a sort of black curtain or ceiling, and the sun is a piece of bright brass, except at sunset or in a mist, when it is a whole Dutch cheese. The world is streets and fields and the seaside and our house—Rich and Middleton, in "Children and the Sea."

English Royal Marriages.

Statute law gives an English king larger powers than any other head of a family in supervising matrimony. Under the terms of the royal marriage act of 1772 no descendant of George II (except the issue of princesses marrying into foreign families) is capable of contracting matrimony without the consent of the reigning sovereign, subject to an important saving clause which the wisdom of parliament dictated.

A member of the royal family may marry in spite of the sovereign's veto, if he or she has reached the age of twenty-five, and has given 12 months' notice to the privy council. Where these conditions are fulfilled the marriage is valid, unless both houses of parliament declare their disapproval.

"E Pluribus Unum."

The motto of the United States, "E Pluribus Unum," is a Latin phrase which means "Out of Many, One." It appeared first on the design of the Great Seal recommended to the Continental congress July 4, 1776, by a committee composed of Franklin, Adams and Jefferson. The motto appears on several coins, though it has never been officially approved for this purpose.

Before the News Broke.

"Were you married before you began your political career?" "Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "My wife would never have accepted me if she had gotten a chance to read all that has been said about me in the newspapers."

Fish are believed to be sensitive to the amount of salt and oxygen in sea-water through which they move.

VISITOR TALKS OF PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

Mrs. R. D. MacArthur, Sister of Mrs. G. E. Matthews Tells of Present Day Conditions in Islands

Mr. and Mrs. George Matthews, 921 West State street are entertaining Mrs. MacArthur's sister, Mrs. R. D. MacArthur, who arrived in Jacksonville Wednesday morning after a two years trip around the world, a great deal of that time having been spent in India, China, Japan and the Philippine Islands. Her son, Lieutenant John MacArthur having been stationed in the last named place for some time. Lieutenant MacArthur is now en route around the earth via Suez Canal to New York City, and Mrs. MacArthur plans to meet him there in about a month.

Mrs. MacArthur has a very pleasing personality, and tells in an interesting way, the conditions as they exist at the present time in our possession of which most people really know so very little the Philippine Islands.

Our government has made some very wonderful strides in the civilization and education of these people in the past twenty-three years. The Igorotes, which were at one time considered the most savage of the tribes, being the original Head Hunters, are now dependable citizens, and really make wonderful soldiers for Uncle Sam. Dog-feasts are now almost unheard of, and the natives have abandoned the time worn habit of grasshopper eating. Sanitary conditions, which were originally nil, are now nearing perfection. Where years ago, in Manila, an American woman was unable to purchase any kind of hat, whatever, there are now Paris creations of both hats and gowns arriving by almost every ship.

Spanish has been abandoned as the intermediary language, and the English language is generally spoken, with the native languages still being used to some extent in the interior provinces. Schools are flourishing, and the natives, as a class have passed from a shiftless, ignorant people, to a polite, trustworthy, enlightened people, in fact, she says, the majority of the students choose law for their profession. She speaks in unusually high terms of the work that General Leonard Wood is doing at present in the islands.

Roads Still Bad. Some things, however, have not changed much. The road system is far from complete, there still being any amount of mere trails that must be traversed on horse back, or still worse, on foot. The carabao, or water-buffalo, is still the principal beast of burden, and the majority of cattle raised still belong to the East Indian breed, which have a small hump on the shoulders, slightly resembling the ancient sacred cattle. A great many of the ladies still wear slippers which are composed of toe and sole only, but the men have practically all adopted shoes, and have gotten away from the barefooted habit.

Mrs. MacArthur says that at the present time there is only one regiment of white American soldiers on duty in the islands, the present army being mainly composed of colored troops from the United States, and the native soldiery. It seems to be the growing custom to place as many colored and native officers as possible, in command, thus relieving a great many white officers. The natives, as a whole openly declare that they are not anxious for complete independence, the Tagalogs being the only tribe strongly insistent for this condition, as they, like the Mexicans, are great dreamers of dreams, each with a political ambition of some day becoming a great leader. Even the unconquerable Moros of the southern islands are insistent that this country still keep control, as they refuse to be dominated by the Tagalogs. Small pipe houses are practically the same price as originally, it being her impression that a large one-room house can still be purchased for about twelve or fifteen dollars, and these houses are a convenience on account of the fact that, when they are wanted at some other spot, they are lifted up on bamboo poles and carried by several men to the new location.

Aguañado Lives in Peace. The former wily old Emilio Aguañado who caused the army insurrection, is now living a retired peaceful life in Manila, and is in no way mixed in public life.

While visiting in Japan, Mrs. MacArthur says she was never bothered for want of escorts, for their party was continually followed, wherever they went by Japanese police officers, who must be told from where they came, why they came, where they were going and why, and how long they intended to remain in each place and why. If told that the party intended taking a certain train or boat, the officers would very politely inform them that they would meet the party there, apparently to see that the intended trip was actually taken. In the Japanese harbors, the antiquated way of coaling vessels is still used. The ladders are dropped from the ships to the barges, and two lines, principally of women, are formed up these ladders, one line to pass up wicker baskets holding about one-half bushel of coal, and the other line is used to pass down the empties. They all swing the baskets at an even cadence for a full half day at a time without a rest. At noon they eat a small amount of fruit, and are again ready for a gruelling half day of vessel-coaling.

Regarding our policy in the Philippines, Mrs. MacArthur stated that the opinions of most people that actually know island conditions seemed to be that a protectorate would be highly unsatisfactory, and that this government should either retain control as at present, or else cut entirely loose from all responsibility for their future, in case they were granted full independence.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

The funeral of Mrs. Pearl Gottschall will be held from Union Baptist church at Pisgah this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. F. M. Crabtree of Chapin with burial in the church cemetery.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lois Ann Bond will be from Trinity church at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The body will remain at the Gillham Funeral Home until the hour of the funeral. Friends wishing to view the remains may do so up to that hour.

MUST BEAR TATTOO MARKS

Samoan Youth Not Considered a Man Unless He Has Been Thoroughly "Decorated."

On the island of Tutuila, one of the Samoan group in the South Pacific, waves the "Star-Spangled Banner," Pango Pango, the harbor of this beautiful island, has been a coaling station for American battleships since 1872, but the island itself has been the property of the United States only since 1900.

Many old and picturesque customs still remain in Tutuila. The birth of a child is an occasion for rejoicing. A feast is held. The father invites all his friends. The mother invites hers. Then there is a regular exchange of presents. The men present gifts to the women. This is followed by feasting and dancing.

A Samoan girl is considered a woman the day she marries, which is at a very early age. But a boy has to go through more of a process than that of simply marrying before he is proclaimed a man. And the process is so painful that he does not attempt to alone. He gathers around him his young friends of the same age. They set out together for the tattooer.

To complete the job of tattooing a boy from the waist to the knee—which is the correct thing in Tutuila—two months are required. When his body is beautifully decorated with interesting designs he is a man.

ALEXANDER MAN TOPS HOG MARKET

George Colwell Tops Market in Chicago and Indianapolis with Fat Hogs (Shipment)—O'Leary Alexander News

Alexander, May 17.—George Colwell topped the heavy hog market in both Chicago and Indianapolis this week. He shipped two car loads of fat hogs to Chicago and one to Indianapolis, returning from the former city Thursday.

Mrs. George Lallue of Jacksonville was an Alexander visitor Thursday.

Mrs. J. J. Johnson was a Jacksonville shopper Thursday.

John Cockin paid a business visit to Jacksonville yesterday.

Pitts Coop and Alonzo Dixon are to work on the hard road which the Longear Construction company is to build near Wenona, Ill. Both men expect to take their families there to reside temporarily.

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

FOODS OF VARIOUS KINDS

WE HEAR much of the Mexican tamales. The word means dumpling in Spanish or a meat patty. With not a world-wide experience in the professionally made tamale, so far they have been anything but edible. There seems to be no reason why they may not be made at home, properly cooked and seasoned, to taste more palatable than half-cooked corn meal seasoned with more red pepper than is wholesome for any stomach. Here is one recipe worth experimenting with:

Take the meat from one-half of a boiled chicken, one clove of garlic, one-half of a medium-sized onion, one-fourth of a teaspoonful of cayenne pepper, one teaspoonful of salt, one cupful of corn meal, two or three small red peppers and a few corn husks. A tamale is a mixture of meat laid into a cake of cooked meal, then wrapped and tied in corn husks and boiled in chicken broth which contains a goodly amount of red pepper. Chop the chicken, as well as the other ingredients, and the onion and garlic. Form the meat and seasonings into rolls about two inches long and three-fourths of an inch in diameter. Pour boiling water over the corn meal to make a thick paste, stir and cook, adding salt. Put out a tablespoonful of the paste, wrap the roll of chicken in it, then wrap each roll in the clean inside husks of corn which have been gathered and saved for just such purpose. The husk, if dry, should be scalded in hot water, for various reasons, not the most important to soften it so that it will wrap easily. Tie and trim the tamales, drop into boiling chicken broth and cook until the corn meal has had time to be well cooked.

Oatmeal Gems.—Take one-quarter cupful of honey, one cupful of sour milk, one egg, one cupful of graham flour, a little salt, one-half teaspoonful of soda; mix well, then add three tablespoonfuls of melted shortening. Pour into gem pans and bake in a moderate oven.

TIGER HAS MANY CHARMS

Natives of Indo-China Make Many Uses of the "Lord of the Jungle."

The teeth and claws of a tiger are used by the natives of Indo-China as good-luck charms, watch charms, or necklaces, and the teeth are used to cure dog bites. They are filed down, and when the powder thus secured is dissolved in water, it is an infallible remedy, they believe. A remarkable belief is that if one makes a cigarette holder out of the canine tooth of a tiger that has eaten a man, one can see the image of the victim, its completeness depending upon the degree to which the smoke has colored the tooth.

The natives carefully clean and macerate the nerves of a tiger in alcohol. The resulting brew is an elixir of long life. If one eats tiger's liver or tiger's heart, one's courage in battle will know no bounds. Among the Moirs, after a tiger has been cooked, its skull and lower jaw are broken and the pieces buried separately, to keep the lord of the jungle's ghost from bringing disturbance and disaster upon the inhabitants of the village. The whiskers, the teeth, and the claws are very much sought after. Ground into fine dust and dissolved in water, the whiskers make a supposedly virulent poison.

His Neighbor's Good.

I see all Creatures everywhere full of their Delights. The Birds are singing; the Fish are sporting; the Four-footed are glad of what they meet withal; the very Insects have their satisfactions. 'Tis a marvellous Display of Infinite Goodness. The Good God has made his creatures capable of Delights; He accommodates them with continual Delights.

Well; is there no way for me to resemble and imitate, this incomparable Goodness of God? Yes; I see my Neighbors all accommodated with their various Delights. All have some, and some have many. Now, I may honestly make their Delights my own. I may rejoice in the Delights, which I see the Goodness of God bestowing upon them. I may make their Prosperity, not my envy, but my Pleasure. I may be glad, at all the good, that I see done unto them.—Cotton Mather, in his Diary, March 12, 1700.

Fateful Three Words.

"See that woman over there?"
"Yes, what about her?"
"Well, if it hadn't been for three words she said ten years ago, I would be as wealthy as Croesus now."

"Delightful situation. Go ahead with the tale."

"Well, her father owned all the safety-pin plants in the country and the family was just rolling in wealth. And with all her riches she was mean enough to deprive me of my chances of making $10,000,000 at a blow! Imagine!"

"What's the rest of the dope? What are the famous three words?"

"Why, I was going to marry her and then, as her millions would have been mine, but—"

"But what?"

"But when I asked her to be mine she said, 'No, you fool!'—Amherst Lord Jeff.

Knew What to See.

A wealthy woman was told by several busybodies that her husband was in love with another woman. "Why, you can see it yourself," they said.

"No, I can't," she replied. "A young woman or a blind woman might see it, but I am fifty years old and I am not blind. I know what not to see."—Boston Transcript.

Qualified.

"Are you a competent chauffeur?"

"Yes, sir."

"But I'm a hard man to please. I don't know whether you could get along with me or not."

"Don't worry about that, boss. I used to drive for a prima donna."

—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Not So Funny.

A New York woman is suing for $10,000 damages as a result of an injury acquired when the hammock in which she was sitting broke. You may smile if you must, but evidently the lady thinks it no laughing matter.

For a matchless pair of one penny and two penny "Post Office" Mauritius stamps on one envelope, $55,000 was paid.

WOODSON CLUB WOMEN ENJOYED PICNIC

Members of Woman's Club Spent Very Pleasant Day in Country at Home of Mrs. Earl Hembrough

Woodson, May 17.—Members of the Woodson Woman's club enjoyed a picnic Thursday at the pleasant country home of Mrs. Earl Hembrough. There were about 60 present, including a number of guests, and the day was one long to be remembered by all. A bountiful picnic dinner was served at noon in the grove near the Hembrough home, the menu including a great variety of good things to eat all in great abundance.

At 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon there was a business session, which was followed by a program as follows:

Reading—Mrs. Johnson Sheppard.

Recitation, "But One Mother"—Miss Doris Steinmetz.

Recitation, "Who Owns the Farm"—Miss Aileen Hembrough.

Paper, "Heaven"—Mrs. Luella Henry.

Victrola selection, "Mother's Hands."

After the program an hour or two was spent with games and contests of various kinds. The winners of the various prizes were Mrs. Fred Quimby, Mrs. Ellen Detore, Mrs. Clyde Owings, Mrs. Clifford Sheppard, John Leslie Henry, Janette Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Johnson Sheppard, Miss Mildred Megginson, Miss Phyllis Steinmetz, Tommy Quimby, Mrs. Fred Henderson.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Fred Henderson in South Jacksonville. The assistant hostesses on that occasion will be Mrs. A. E. Powell, Mrs. Dallas Crain and Miss Nina Anthony. The roll call subject will be "Education and the Home."

Market Report

By The Associated Press

WHEAT MARKET AVERAGED HIGHER

CHICAGO, May 17.—Stimulated by unfavorable crop reports from the southwest, the wheat market averaged higher in price today, but demand lacked volume and for the most part the gains failed to hold. Closing quotations were unsettled at 1c net decline to a like advance, with July $1.17 1/2 to $1.17 3/4 and September $1.15 1/2 to $1.15 3/4. Corn finished at 10c drop to 1c gain and oats varying from 1c off to a rise of 1 1/2c. In provisions the outcome ranged from 5c setback to 5c advance.

According to current gossip, the condition of much of the winter wheat crop has been going backward of late, especially in Kansas. Around Wichita, prospect yields were estimated at five to seven bushels an acre compared with 15 to 20 bushels a month ago.

The present adverse showing was ascribed largely to dry weather earlier in the season. Complaints of labor scarcity tended further to lift wheat prices, and it was said Missouri grain crops would as a result be cut 10 to 30 per cent. Reduction of spring wheat acreage was also talked of in connection with labor shortage.

Germany was reported to have purchased a cargo of new crop wheat under the first such sale announced this season. Export business otherwise, however, failed to develop vigor and with profit-taking on the part of holders here on the price bulges and with buying curtailed except on set-backs, the market sagged as the day drew to an end. Denials of Kansas crop damage were also of some effect at the last.

Denials of prices of corn and oats resulted from realizing sales to collect profits. The realizing appeared to be due solely to the recent four cent advance in corn.

Provisions were governed chiefly by the actions of grain.

Many of London's famous stagecoaches are being converted into auto buses.

BUTTER MARKET UNSETTLED THURSDAY

CHICAGO, May 17.—The butter market here today was easy and very unsettled. Supplies did not clean up under scores speculators were anxious to sell and demand was light. One feature of today's market was that the undergrades were hardest to sell with the result the tendency of prices was to spread out. The ear market was fairly steady for the season that demand, though limited, was not satisfied. This was particularly true of the better scoring cars.

Fresh butter: 92 score 41; 91 score 40; 90 score 40; 89 score 39; 88 score 39; 87 score 38; 86 score 37.

Centralized carlots: 90 score 41; 89 score 40; 88 score 40.

East St. Louis Livestock
EAST ST. LOUIS, May 17.—Cattle receipts 2500; not enough native steers here to test market; one load $10.20; Texas grass steers and other classes steady with top calves $11.00 to city butchers; others $10.50 to 10.75; cows $6.00 to 7.00; canners $2.75 to $3.25; hologna bulls $5.25 to 5.75.

OLD TIME RESIDENT IS BACK FOR VISIT

Thomas H. Davidson of White Hall, Conn., from Soldiers' Home in Quincy—Seven Pound Bass Caught at Reservoir.

White Hall, May 16.—Thomas H. Davidson, who was 86 years of age March 15, last, is greeting friends of old in White Hall. He retains strength and vigor, and is the oldest member of the local G. A. R. post. For some years he and his wife have resided in the soldiers' home at Quincy, and they are guests of their daughter, Mrs. John Driver. Mr. Davidson claims to have records to show that he in his time cleared at least 600 acres of timber in the vicinity of White Hall.

Kenyon and Dale Hyde have terminated a short visit under the parental roof. Kenyon is connected with the division of highways at Springfield, while Dale is a law student at Bloomington, with another year of study before him.

The Nash home north of the city is vacant. Since the death of the father, two sons, Harry and Oliver, remained at the old home until now. Harry has gone to Jerseyville to become identified with the grocery business, and Oliver is unsettled for the present.

Edward Benear, custodian of the city reservoir fishing preserve, confirms the statement that Fred Degner caught a seven pound bass last Saturday, the largest catch of the season. The largest catch last season was a 7 1/4 pound bass by Charles Hanna, son of Rodhouse. Mr. Benear states that couple are now biting and that John White caught good messes of catfish on three successive days. There is a committee on fish supply, consisting of C. E. Kink, Charles Campbell and J. O. Cantrall, and they have arranged for restocking this year rather extensively, arrangements having been made for a government shipment in addition to a seining cruise. The city reservoir is a resort, the value of which has not come to be fully appreciated by the general public.

F. F. Barth, organizer of the White Hall Chamber of Commerce, left today for Pekin to put on a campaign to revive a defunct commerce body. The White Hall organization starts with 200 members at $25 each, and it is necessary to increase the number to 240 in order to attain the objective set for the first year.

Robert Bradburn, the boy—Phillip Rice.

John Bradburn, the boy's father—Vernon Schaad.

Rose Bradburn, the boy's mother—Julia Herbert.

Ruth Abbot, his sweetheart—Grace Zulauf.

(Had) Phillips, his pal—Willfred Rice.

"Dory" Mayne, his childhood friend—Theresa Hamm.

Catherin Kance, girl in his crowd—Catherine Cline.

Miss Henrietta Hume, the house guest—Frances Dufelmier.

Yennie Johnson, the hired girl—Alma Lovickamp.

George Brown, a farmer—Lloyd Miller.

Girls and boys at the party.

Act I.
Living room of boy's home (Late afternoon.)

Ruth Abbot's home (evening.)

Act II.
Boy's home (midnight.)

Place—A large town in the middlewest.

Day—A day in first week of September of the current year.

Our moving down near the railroad track has brought our prices down, so our customers get more value for less money than elsewhere. Our quality the highest; our prices the lowest. Just received, a car of bale ties.

JACKSONVILLE FARM SUPPLY CO.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Wool Facts—The livestock marketing department of the I. A. A. states that wool is classified as follows: Fine staple; fine clothing; half blood staple; half blood clothing; three-eighths staple; three-eighths clothing; quarter blood staple; quarter clothing; low quarter blood. The bulk of wool produced in Illinois will be graded in the following classes: Three-quarter staple; quarter blood staple; quarter clothing and low quarter, and the average price received will be about the price of three-quarter clothing. You will find little Illinois wool in the four higher grades. C. A. Stewart, of the livestock marketing department, says that conditions in the wool trade are so satisfactory that he sees no reason why the prices on wool should not work to higher level.

What to do about the Semi-annual payment of taxes?—Rep. J. W. Rausch has introduced a bill in the Illinois legislature to provide for the payment of taxes in two installments: the first half payable during the time in which they are now payable and the second half of the taxes made payable between the 15th of September and the first of December. Many banks in Illinois are said to be in favor of this bill becoming a law, but the county treasurers are reported as being opposed to it. The writer had experience with the semi-annual payment of taxes in Minnesota for several years and found it very satisfactory. If the readers favor this proposition, we recommend that they write to J. W. Rausch and express their approval or what is better to our own representatives.
